My Broken Heart

Chapter 1 by Grace1517

We fought, I didn't know what to do. He had apologized but I wouldn't accept. When I didn't answer, he told me to face the facts, that he and I were over and there was nothing we could do about it. I didn't know what to say and didn't know what to do. I still regret it, every second that ticks by I wish I hadn't agreed. I wish I stopped it and I wish I could go back and make it right, but I couldn't.

Chapter 2 by SaintSayaka

Adonis is a difficult name to bear in these times. The media likes to make jokes about it, assuming that their lowbrow audiences are cultured enough to understand them. In case you don't know, Adonis was a beautiful young man doted on and loved by two goddesses: Aphrodite and Persephone. And that's sort of what happened between me and Josh and Bruce. A gay love triangle. While all three of us were in a world class band. It's something out of a cheap romance novel, but at least those have halfway happy endings. Without the two of them by my side, the red carpet might as well be made of coals.

Let's start from the beginning.
